Gallery Nucleus and Nerdcore Present

Home Slice: A Solo Exhibition by Scott C.

March 7, 2009 - March 23, 2009

Opening Reception: March 7, 2009 (7 pm - 11 pm)

Scott C. will be in attendance to meet and greet fans. Free admission and refreshments.

Alhambra, CA – Gallery Nucleus invites you to explore the wonderful, lighthearted world of Scott C. in his very first Los Angeles solo exhibition fittingly titled HOME SLICE.

HOME SLICE is a cleverly conjured concept of cutaway homes which allows all of us the opportunity to peer into the everyday lives of the numerous charismatic characters which inhabit Scott C.'s world. Through his inviting use of watercolors, Scott C. illustrates the internal workings of Rocket House, Whale House, and Cloud House among others offering his largest original works to date.

This exhibit will be unparalleled in nature with over 25 new works, a contest giveaway, an exclusive print release, installation work as well as puppets (Yes, puppets!) handsomely crafted by the talented gang over at the Annie award-winning Screen Novelties.

Come along with us as we venture into a world filled with delightful creativity beaconing your inner child as we explore the not-so-humble abodes of some of Scott C.'s most beloved characters as well as a few new arrivals. We invite you to be a part of the fun!

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Scott Campbell is an accomplished comic book artist and painter. He has contributed to many different publications, such as the noted Flight comics as well as the kid-friendly Nickelodeon Magazine. Scott also regularly contributes to Double Fine Comics and Hickee books created and operated by him and artist Graham Annable. Never failing to impress, Scott proves to be a particularly versatile artist. With skills extending beyond the illustration realm, his recent projects include the forthcoming video game Brutal Legend.

Since October of 2004, Nucleus has strived to be a welcoming gathering place for the art-loving community by offering quality art, art-related goods, and rarities. Focusing primarily on gallery exhibits, we have also held benefit auctions, product signings, music events, and artist lectures.

After three and a half years, we moved one block east to a much larger and more dynamic space. Still in the heart of quaint downtown Alhambra, we re-opened in March of 2008 with over 2,000 square feet of open gallery space, 1,000 square feet of shop/boutique, and over 3,000 square feet of studio/production space.

Having exhibited both local artists and artists from abroad, and catering to an international customer base, we offer an extensive collection of original contemporary, illustrated, graphic, commercial, and narrative art. (All of which are carefully cataloged online on our website.)

Always open to the public, we welcome art collectors and the general public alike to visit us seven days a week.
